Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1859 by Henry M. Caffrey in the Clerk's office of the District Court of Maryland.

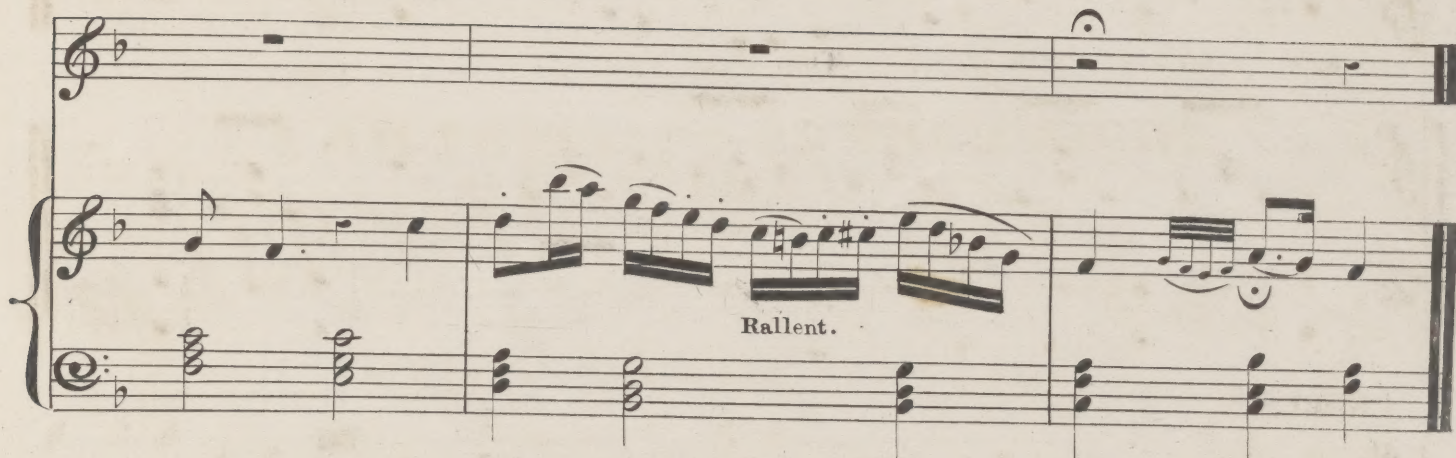

hear the love birds singing, Their songs for thee in vain.

CHORUS.

Down by the streamlet, In the flow'ry dell, 'Neath the weeping willow, sleeps the form I love so well, Down by the streamlet, In the flow'ry dell,

'Neath the weeping willow, Sleeps the form I love so well.

I am thinking of thee, Annie,
 Now the flow'rs are in bloom,
 I am shedding tears of sorrow,
 While kneeling at thy tomb.

Chorus. Down by the streamlet, &c

3.

Like the summer sun at ev'ning,
 Sinking slowly in the west,
 'Mid the falling leaves of autumn,
 Thou so gently stole to rest.

Chorus. Down by the streamlet, &c

4.

I am thinking of thee, Annie,
 The stars are in the sky,
 But their pale and hallow'd offering,
 Bids me say to thee Good bye.

Chorus. Down by the streamlet, &c
